Cookie Notice: Version 1. Effective 21.08.2023

Necessary cookies - 'Cookies that ensure our website functions properly.'

We use Necessary cookies. Without these, our website wouldn't work the way It should.

Necessary cookies enable core functionality such as security, network management, and accessibility. You may disable these by changing your browser settings, but this may affect how the website functions.

Analytical cookies - 'Cookies that enable us to analyse usage data and improve our website.'

We aim to always be improving our website but can only achieve that with your help. Our analytical cookies tell us what we need to do better.

Hotjar

On all SixtyLearn.com domains and forms we use Hotjar cookies to improve our services. Hotjar anonymises your personal data by encryption, so your privacy remains safeguarded.

You can find the Hotjar privacy policy here.

Google Analytics

Google Analytics evaluates how you're using SixtyLearn.com, as well as how you've found us. We use its information to improve our website.

Only anonymised information is exchanged with this party about the use of the website. Google Analytics prohibits sending personally identifiable information to Google Analytics. In addition we hide parts of the IP address (IP masking) to apply additional anonymisation.

You can find the Google privacy policy here.

Social cookies - 'Cookies that allow functionality from social media networks.'

To allow functionality from social media networks such as LinkedIn, third party cookies are used on the SixtyLearn.com. We have no control over these third-party cookies. To find out more about any third-party cookie it is advisable to visit the respective site and to review their individual cookie policy.

LinkedIn

The LinkedIn Insight Tag enables the collection of metadata such as IP address information, timestamp, and events (e.g. page views). All data is encrypted.

The LinkedIn browser cookie is stored in a user's browser until a user deletes the cookie or the cookie expires (there's a rolling six-month expiration from the last time the user's browser loaded the Insight Tag). Users have full control to block or delete cookies.
